

5X (this side only)

NEW YORK

MAP and GUIDE

Hotel Knickerbocker

Rooms with Tub Bath and Shower $3.

WEST 45th STREET, EAST of BROADWAY
TIMES SQUARE

MAP OF LOWER NEW YORK CITY showing the location of THE KNICKERBOCKER

— EXPLANATION —
 Subway Lines (L.R.T. West Side)
 Subway Lines (L.R.T. East Side)
 Subway Lines (B.M.T.)
 Subway, 42nd St. Shuttle
 Subway Lines under construction
 Subway Express Stations
 Subway Local Stations
 Elevated Lines
 Elevated Express Stations
 Elevated Local Stations
 Hudson Tubes
 Hudson Tubes Stations
 House Numbers

SCALE IN FEET (Approximate)
 1000 2000 3000

OUR OWN TRAVEL INFORMATION BUREAU FURNISHES RELIABLE INFORMATION REGARDING TRAINS, STEAMERS AND BUSES — PROCURES SCHEDULES AND FOREIGN VISES, ATTENDS TO PASSPORT MATTERS, AND ARRANGES LOCAL SIGHT-SEEING TRIPS. ALL FOR THE CONVENIENCE OF OUR GUESTS.

Copyright by Hagsman Map Company, Inc., N.Y.

Grand Central Terminal and Pennsylvania Station may be reached from Hotel Knickerbocker in a few minutes.

To reach the National League Ball Grounds, or Van Cortlandt Park at 242nd St., take train so marked on the Broadway-7th Ave. West Side route going north from Times Square Station.

Going south on the Broadway-7th Ave. from Times Square, the P. R. R. Station at 34th St. is the first stop. Express trains stopping at 34th, 14th, and Chambers Sts. — thence to Park Pl., Fulton, Wall St. and on via tubes to Brooklyn, making connections for Coney Island. Local trains run to South Ferry, stops at Cortlandt and Rector Sts. (The Aquarium is located here — worth a visit.)

For Bronx Park and Zoological Gardens take Bronx Park express on Broadway-7th Ave. line or East Side (Lexington Ave.) subway north from G. C. Terminal. Note trains so marked. Express stops at 85th and 125th. Going south by this route the express stops are 14th St. and Brooklyn Bridge, thence via lower Broadway and tubes to Brooklyn with convenient connections for Coney Island. Local trains run only to City Hall.

The Broadway Subway (B. M. T.) from Times Square north runs to Queensboro Plaza (L. I. City). Going south from Times Square by trains so marked to Coney Island without change. Express stops at 14th St. (Union Square) and City Hall (lower Broadway).

NY
A
A
725
N4
8534
P

What You Should See In New York

LOWER NEW YORK

Battery Park—Southern end Manhattan. Area 21 acres.

Statue of Liberty—Bedloe's Island; height 305 ft. 6 in. Boat to statue every hour on the hour from Battery Park; fare 35 cents.

Aquarium—Great world marine collection. Open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. including Sundays. Located in Battery Park.

Bowling Green—Where our forefathers bowled.

Custom House—Faces Bowling Green. Government revenue headquarters.

Cunard Steamship Building—Foot Broadway. Note paintings in rotunda.

Standard Oil Building—26 Broadway. Headquarters Standard Oil Co.

Fraunces' Tavern—Corner Broad and Pearl Sts. Contains museum. Washington took leave of officers in Long Room.

Stock Exchange—13 Wall St., fronts on Broad St. Admission obtained upon introduction by a member. Built of Gothic marble. Value $10,800,000.

Singer Building—149 Broadway, Tower 612 ft., 47 stories. One of the greatest achievements in modern skyscraper building. Headquarters of the Singer Sewing Machine Co.

Bank of New York—N. E. Corner of Wall and William Sts. Founded 1784 by Alexander Hamilton; oldest bank in city.

United States Sub-Treasury—Wall and Nassau. Vault for gold. Washington's inauguration here April 30, 1789. Site of U. S. first capital.

New York Clearing House—Cedar St., between Nassau and Broadway.

J. Pierpont Morgan Bank—23 Wall St., corner Nassau St. Scene of Wall St. explosion, September 18, 1920. Note marble and stone.

Trinity Church—Corner Broadway and Rector St. facing Wall. Built originally 1696-97. Oldest grave 1761; bodies of Alexander Hamilton, Robert Fulton and Albert Gallatin buried here.

Curb Market—78 Trinity Place, back of Trinity Church.

St. Paul's Chapel—Corner Vesey St. and Broadway. Oldest church building now remaining. Built 1754-56. George Washington and Governor Clinton had pews here. Ancient graveyard in rear of church.

St. Johns Church—44 John St. New York's oldest Methodist Church. First built in 1768. Contains clock given by Charles Wesley.

Woolworth Building—233 Broadway, at Park Place. World's highest building; 792 feet, 57 stories. Cost $13,500,000. 13,000 persons work in 4,000 offices of building. Ticket to Tower 50c.

City Hall—Centre City Hall Park. Contains many relics.

Municipal Building—Just N. E. of City Hall. Forty-two stories, 560 feet high.

Brooklyn Bridge—First bridge Manhattan to Brooklyn. Just S. E. of Municipal Building. 1,016 feet long. Cost $15,000,000.

Bowery—Chatham Sq. north to E. 6th St. Foster wrote famous songs here; former home of the lawless.

Manhattan Bridge—Take 3rd Avenue surface car north on Bowery. 6,885 ft. long; cost $16,698,188.

Williamsburg Bridge—Delancy and Clinton Sts. north of Manhattan Bridge. 7,308 feet long; cost $23,100,000.

Chinatown—Mott, Pelland Doyers Streets. Adjoints Bowery.

St. Marks—Second Avenue and 11 Street. Built 1795. Contains tomb of Peter Stuyvesant.

Tombs—Cross to Centre and Lafayette Streets. One of New York's oldest prisons.

Bridge of Sighs—Connects Tombs with Criminal Courts on north side. Thaw was among prisoners who crossed this bridge to the Tombs.

Criminal Courts Building—Connected with the Tombs by Bridge of Sighs. General Sessions and Supreme Court here.

MID-TOWN NEW YORK

Cooper Union—Cooper Square at 3rd and 4th Avenues at 8th Street. Contains museums, reading room and cios.

Grace Church—Broadway and 10th St. Built 1845; Gothic architecture, "Dollola" or urn in front of church, excavated in Rome and designed in time of Nero to hold grain.

Madison Square—Broadway, Fifth Avenue and 23rd Street.

Tammany Hall—Union Sq. & 17th St. Headquarters of Democratic Party in New York. Collection of historical paintings and prints.

Union Square—Broadway at 14th Street. East Side at 15th Street is Union Square Hotel, where Henry Street is located. Southeast corner 17th Street is Westmoreland Apartment House, where William Lloyd Garrison died; No. 33 was city's first skyscraper.

Metropolitan Life Insurance Building—No 1 Madison Avenue, corner 23rd Street. Occupies a block; tower 700 feet, 52 stories.

Greenwich Village—West of Washington Sq., extending north to 14th St. Little Bohemia, with quaint studios and restaurants.

Washington Square—Foot of Fifth Avenue, Stanford White designed Washington Arch. Cost $120,000. On east is one of New York university buildings; on west, Judson Memorial Baptist Church.

Madison Square—Broadway at 23rd St. One of New York's first skyscrapers. Cost $4,000,000.

Flat Iron Building—East—New building at 8th Avenue and 50th Street.

Bellevue Hospital—First Avenue and 26th St. City's largest hospital. Capacity 1,300 beds. Walk six blocks east from Madison Square.

Morgue—On north side of Bellevue Hospital grounds.

The Little Church Around the Corner—111 East 29th Street. Many theatrical stars married here.

Pennsylvania Station—32nd Street and Seventh Avenue. One of the world's greatest stations. Handles nearly fifty million passengers a year.

Post Office—33rd Street and 8th Avenue, behind Pennsylvania Station.

Union League Club—N. E. corner 39th St. and Fifth Avenue.

Public Library—Club Avenue between 40th and 42nd Sts. Forty-two branches and six sub-branches. Cost $9,000,000.

Grand Central Station—42nd Street. 1½ blocks East of Fifth Avenue. One of the greatest railway terminals in the world.

Grand Central Palace—Lexington Ave. at 46th St. Home of all the great industrial exhibitions and expositions of the country.

Times Square—Intersection Broadway, Seventh Avenue and 42nd St., view of Great White Way excellent from this point.

Rialto—Theatre zone from 40th St. to 51st St., on Broadway and adjacent streets.

St. Patrick's Cathedral—Fifth Avenue and 50-51st Sts. Dedicated May 25, 1879; 400 feet long. Gothic. Eleventy cathedral in size in world.

Union Club—N. E. corner 51st St. and Fifth Ave.

St. Thomas' Church—Fifth Ave. and 53rd St. Third largest Episcopal church in city. French perpendicular Gothic architecture.

Church of St. Paul the Apostle—Ninth Ave. at 59th St. Catholic; architecturally ranks third after St. John the Divine and St. Patrick's.

Queens Highway—Second Ave. and 59th St. Take 59th St. surface car east to Second Ave. Not a suspension but a cantilever bridge; second largest tower bridge in world; cost $17,000,000.

Columbus Circle—Intersection of Broadway and 8th Ave. at 59 St. Columbus monument, 77 ft. high.

UPPER NEW YORK

Central Park—59th St. to 110th St., Fifth Ave. on east and Sixth Ave. on west. Contains 862 acres; 2½ miles long, one-half mile wide; begun in 1857, completed 1858.

In the Park you find the Metropolitan Museum, 5th Ave. and 82nd St. Open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, except Sunday, 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. Admission 25c. Monday and Friday. Other days free.

Am. Cl. of Cleopatra's Needle, just west of Museum. Egyptian obelisk, placed here in 1882, gift of Khedive of Egypt.

American Museum of Natural History—Central Park at 77th St. Open free daily.

Peace House—Fifth Ave. and 109th St. Dedicated to universal brotherhood. Open daily 4-6 p.m. Sundays, 2-10 p.m. Admission free.

Cathedral of St. John the Divine—Episcopal. Amsterdam Ave. between 110th and 113th Sts. When completed will rank among the world's largest cathedrals.

Columbia University—114th-120th Sts. One of the oldest universities.

Grant's Tomb—Riverside Drive at 123rd St. Contains bodies of General and Mrs. Grant. Erected 1897.

College of the City of New York—Amsterdam Avenue at 138th Street.

Hispanic Society of America—156th Street. West of Broadway. Open free daily.

Morris-Jumel House—160th St. near Amsterdam Ave. Colonial rarities.

Bronx Park—East 180th St. and Boston Road, East of Bronx. One of Southern Boulevard. Contains 719.12 acres.

The Zoo (in the Park)—204 acres. Mondays and Thursdays, adults, 25c; children, 15c; other days free.

And you will also find in the Park:

Botanical Garden—Plants gathered from all parts of the world.

The Cloisters—191st St. and Fort Washington Ave. Branch of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, containing many rare art objects.

Washington Bridge—181st St. Connects Manhattan and Bronx.

New York University—138rd Street and University Avenue.

This contains the:

Hall of Fame—Gallery of notables, tablets chosen by vote.

Poe Cottage—Kingsbridge Road to 192nd St. Collection of Poe relics in house where Edgar Poe and wife lived, 1846-49. Subway (Bronx Park Express) to Mott Ave., change to Jerome Ave. Subway; off at Kingsbridge; walk two blocks east.

Van Cortlandt Park—242nd St. 1132 acres. Broadway subway trains marked "Van Cortlandt."

Here you will see and behold:

Van Cortlandt Mansion—Colonial Museum. Free except Thursday when admission is 25 cents.

Palisade Interstate Park—Opposite the city across Hudson River. 29 miles along river. Splendid view of New York.

WHERE THE MOVIES ARE SHOWN

Astor—Broadway and 45th Street.

Cameo—42nd Street East of Broadway.

Capitol—51st Street and Broadway.

Central—43rd Street and Broadway.

Colony—Broadway at 53rd Street.

Criterion—Broadway at 44th Street.

Embarcadere—Broadway at 46th Street.

Harris—42nd Street West of Broadway.

Moss—Broadway—41st Street and Broadway.

Paramount—43rd Street and Broadway.

Plaza—Madison Avenue and 59th Street.

Rivoli—Broadway and 49th Street.

Rialto—Broadway and 42nd Street.

Roxey—50th Street and Seventh Avenue.

Selwyn—42nd Street West of Broadway.

Strand—47th Street and Broadway.

Warner—42nd Street and Broadway.

NEW YORK

MAP and GUIDE

Hotel Knickerbocker

Its location, on 45th Street West, in the Times Square district, is out of the noise and confusion of Broadway, yet but a step away. It is surrounded by all the leading theaters and motion picture houses; less than two blocks from Fifth Avenue with its marvelous shops and department stores and only five minutes by taxi from both the Pennsylvania Station and Grand Central Terminal.

Both public and private rooms, in their equipment, furnishing and decoration, make a guest, whether transient or permanent, feel that he is in a hotel which is indeed a home.

The Foyer and Lounge particularly vie with those of any hotel in architectural beauty, luxurious furnishing, rich draperies and solid comforts.

The Restaurant, exceptionally spacious and well arranged, features club breakfasts, luncheons and de luxe dinners. And there is a Grill Room, delightful in its decorations and appointments, for social functions, luncheon and supper clubs.

CLUB BREAKFASTS

40, 55, 65 and 75 cents

CLUB LUNCHEONS

65, 75 and 85 cents

DE LUXE DINNER, $1.25

also A'la Carte Service

Rooms with Tub Bath and Shower $3.

WEST 45th STREET, EAST of BROADWAY
TIMES SQUARE

04611430

BOX 38